Coastal Horizons Announces Elevation of Jenifer Burns to Chief Financial Officer

WILMINGTON, N.C. — Coastal Horizons Center is pleased to announce the elevation of Jenifer Burns to Chief Financial Officer.

Burns has been with Coastal Horizons for 17 years, beginning her career with the organization as a Financial Assistant. Over the years, she has advanced through the organization, bringing steady leadership, strong financial expertise, and a deep commitment to Coastal Horizons' mission.

As Chief Financial Officer, Burns oversees financial strategy, budgeting, reporting, and compliance. In this role, she is focused on strengthening the organization's financial sustainability while supporting its continued work to improve the health and well-being of individuals, families, and communities across North Carolina.

"Jenifer's growth within Coastal Horizons is a reflection of her dedication, expertise, and unwavering commitment to our mission," said Margaret Weller-Stargell, President and CEO of Coastal Horizons. "Her leadership will be instrumental as we continue to expand access to critical services across our state and beyond."

A Wilmington resident since childhood, Burns has deep roots in the community and a strong understanding of the region Coastal Horizons serves.

Coastal Horizons congratulates Jenifer Burns on this well-deserved elevation and looks forward to her continued leadership.

About Coastal Horizons
